Dear Folks,

Following the 10:30 Mass this morning we will have the dedication of our new painting in St. Francis De Sales Church, St. Martin De Porres. I leave these notes from a recent Parish Letter. Mrs. Diane Waller is the artist and offers these insights.

"We are fortunate enough to have a painting that was done shortly before St. Martin died as well as the relics of his body including his head. In 2015, a scientific reconstruction was made of the skull of Saint Martin by Brazilian scientists which included parts of his actual clothing and hair. The reconstruction looks remarkably like the only known painting that was done of him when he was alive (or shortly after his death). (Another reconstruction was done for Saint Rose of Lima; Martin's contemporary and friend). At the time of his death, Saint Martin only had 2 teeth left which is apparent in not only the reconstruction, but also the portrait painted of him where you can see his jaw had collapsed from the loss of teeth.

It is from these two depictions of Saint Martin that I painted his likeness - although I painted him a few years younger and in better health. He is wearing a white tunic with a leather belt and a black cape. He is also shown wearing the rosary which does NOT have a cross or crucifix attached to it (as in the earliest painting of St. Martin); the custom of wearing a rosary without a cross or crucifix attached around the neck had become common, even customary, by the Spanish Dominicans by the late 1600's. I chose to paint him wearing the habit from the earliest painting of him (attached) and literally clutching a broom reflecting his extreme humility. The orphan child shows his devotion to the poor and her clothing is painted in red (signifying the blood of Christ which is represented in all the paintings I did for the Sanctuary). The mouse at the bottom of the painting represents his compassion for the least of all God's creatures. I chose to paint the background dark to balance out the Divine Mercy painting which also has a black background.

An important distinction to make is that Saint Martin is often incorrectly depicted as wearing the habit of a lay brother (conversus) and even written that way in some of his biographies. However, up until the 1800's, he was always painted in the tertiary habit, not a lay brother's habit. From the research I did, I found that he never became a lay brother; there is no contemporary evidence that he was ever a lay or cooperator brother.

The oldest painting of the saint does not show him in the habit of a conversus or lay brother; rather, he is wearing the habit of a tertiary. Technically in the language of the time, Martin would have been a "religiosus donatus" or a "tertiarius professus."

Before the late 1700s all Dominican tertiaries made a promise of celibacy. They were in a loose sense "religious" as we now understand the term. Their habit was a white tunic bound with a leather belt and a black cape or mantle. They did NOT wear a scapular of any color which he is often portrayed wearing in modern-day depictions.

At about the age of fifteen years, Martin gave his name as a donatus or lay tertiary, and after a year of novitiate he was allowed on June 2, 1603, to make solemn vows (as would clerical friars, lay brothers or cloistered nuns), something very rarely permitted to donati at that time. But he did this while remaining a donatus. This, perhaps, is where confusion lies.

After Martin's death, his obituary was included in the acts of the Dominican General Chapter of 1642 where he is not called "conversus" but rather "donatus." The text reads: "In the province of St. John [the Baptist] of Peru, in the priory of the Holy Rosary in Lima, a man of great virtues and holiness died, brother Martin de Porres, donatus."

At the time of the first move to canonize him in 1675 he is specifically called "de la tercera Orden de N.P. Santo Domingo" ("of the third order of Our Holy Father Dominic"), not a lay brother. The Lima Process for his canonization, containing witnesses questioned in 1660, 1662, and 1671 consistently refers to the saint as "religioso donado".

And at the time of his beatification in 1837, the life prepared for that process specifically calls him "terziario," a member of the Third Order, not a lay brother. A remarkable saint, indeed!

"Compassion, my dear Brother, is preferable to cleanliness. Reflect that with a little soap I can easily clean my bed covers but even with a torrent of tears I would never wash from my soul the stain that my harshness toward the unfortunate would create." – Saint Martin

Saint Martin, pray for us!

This past week we had meetings for those interested in serving as Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors. Should anyone have missed the gathering please contact me and we can help you get signed in with the much needed assistants to the Mass.

Sunday, June 13 marks the final 2:00 Sunday "Mask" Mass. On Sunday June 13th the parish will return to the practice of using the "Sign of Peace" at Mass and the use of the Communion Rail for communion. God bless one and all for your great patient endurance.

Recently I sent out a note to the Collegian list and offered to take the students fly fishing on July 4th if they would like to go. Please contact me at: frgould@gmail.com. We will leave after the 8:30 Mass and return around 2:00. Everyone is guaranteed a fish. Welcome home.

Collegiate answer: For the romantics in the parish, X's at the end of letters signify "Kisses" because those in the days of greater illiteracy need only sign with the an X and then kiss the mark to show affirmation.

Collegian Question: The Japanese Navy had one Catholic listed among her admirals. Who was he? Be careful, two men shared the same surname.

Dear Parents,
 Registration for next year’s classes will begin soon. We are working on an online application, hopefully available next week. The tentative plan is for classes to be held on:

Sunday, following 8:30 Mass, 9:30 to 10:45 am
 (K through 8th grade, with potential RCIC classes for older children preparing for sacraments);

Monday, 5 to 6:15 pm
 (K through high school, with potential RCIC/ RCIT classes for older preparing for sacraments);

Wednesday: two sessions
3:30 to 4:45 pm (Preschool through 5th grade)
5 to 6:15 pm (6th through 8th grade, with potential middle school RCIC class for older children preparing for sacraments)

Please make sure to check the weekly parish bulletin and your email for updates about our programs and summer happenings at St. Francis. Have a healthy, happy and holy summer! Don’t forget to say your prayers :-)
 God bless you all,
 - Kim and Janice

Homeschooling Parents: Please make sure your child has completed all online work for their grade level before registering for next year’s classes. Registration for the 2021-2022 school year begins in early summer. The online platform will still be available through the summer, for those who need more time.

Registration for 2021-2022 School Year: Registration for the next school year will begin in late spring. All children are expected to successfully complete their current grade-level curriculum before registering for the upcoming school year.

Registration for 2021-2022 Confirmation Preparation: Students who would like to begin the first year of Confirmation preparation (usually in the 7th grade) must have an understanding of material covered on the 6th grade assessment.

The 6th grade exam covers the basic truths proclaimed in the Creed (taught in 5th grade Faith and Life textbook), and the Ten Commandments (from 6th grade Faith and Life textbook). The 6th grade assessment is available on the parish website, under Religious Education, Parent Resources.

Those beginning Confirmation preparation should also know the basic parts of the Bible (primary knowledge of Old and New Testament stories; names of gospel writers, and how to look up Bible passages), and basic prayers (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Act of Contrition, Apostles Creed).

HEY 8TH GRADERS! – Starting in July, you are ALL invited to join us at Youth Nights. Youth Nights are weekly meetings where the teens of the parish get together and grow closer to God and to each other. Come dive deeper into your relationship with Jesus! We have discussions, read Scripture, laugh, listen to music, pray, and more, and we are so excited for you all to join us.

WORKCAMP MEETING – Our next Teen Workcamp Meeting will be Sunday, June 6th in the gym, 6:30-8pm. All teen Workcampers are expected to attend the meetings. See you there! Your appeal letters should be mailed out by now. Remember that if you do not mail appeal letters, you are responsible for the whole $600. Please contact Emily with any questions.

PARENT WORKCAMP MEETING – Meeting for all parents of 2021 Workcampers on Sunday, June 6th, 4:15 - 5:15 PM in the gym. Please plan on attending even if your child has attended Workcamp in the past.

ADULTS NEEDED FOR WORKCAMP – We are still in need of a few more adults (age 21+) to join us at Workcamp, June 27 – July 3. Adult participation makes Workcamp possible for all the teens of our parish who want to attend. Workcamp is just as exciting and impactful for the adults! Contact e.glass@saintfrancisparish.org for more information or to sign up.

NEED VEHICLES – We are looking to borrow any vans or SUVs with 6 or more seatbelts for Workcamp from June 27 – July 3. ## Ushers Needed

Are you willing to serve?

To better facilitate our Masses and assist and greet our Mass goers, the Parish has an Usher Ministry. The Usher ministry currently needs additional members and anyone who is interested should contact Pat Orender. It is realized that some people's schedules prohibit them from committing to attending a particular Mass on a regular basis and are not able to serve as ushers. However, we are flexible you may only be able to serve one mass a month that's not a problem.... We will accept all who are willing and interested helping.

Individuals and families are encouraged to participate. There are no requirements except for a friendly smile and a willingness to welcome all to our faith community. Ushers (Adult) assist in all masses by taking up the collection, assuring the gifts are ready and carried to the celebrant (after COVID retractions are lifted), distribution of bulletins, and other duties as appropriate. When available to assist with funerals, weddings, or any special occasions that occur in the church. There are no scheduled meetings, only those called on an as-needed basis.

Parish Homeless Ministry

In the St. Francis de Sales Church homeless ministry, we are humbly seeking ways to show special love for our brothers and sisters without sufficient food and/or shelter. Each month we serve food and supplies to the homeless in Leesburg and in Anacostia (DC). We are grateful for the generosity of our parishioners already participating in this ministry.

- Special thanks to those who volunteered to make food and to deliver it to the Leesburg shelter on May 27. The shelter is currently providing housing for 25+ people but also serves the drop-in hungry.
- Our next delivery to Missionary Sisters of Charity in Anacostia (DC) will be on June 11th, with donations due June 10th.
- The Sisters are still not yet accepting unwed mothers, due to Covid restrictions. We will notify you when they resume this part of their ministry.

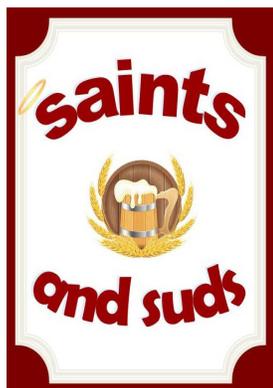

Please join us in prayer or in works of charity by signing up to purchase items, make casseroles, bake cakes, or to transport meals and supplies.
