Dear Folks,

God bless the many folks who joined the Church at the recent Easter Vigil. One was baptized and Eight individuals received into the Church by their profession of Faith... meaning their baptisms in the Protestant churches were considered valid and not in need of baptism. Seven others stood for their sacrament of Confirmation. Thank you to all the people that have been so supportive of those entering the Church. Special thanks is offered to Mr. Vladimir Rudenko, who has lead the RCIA class all through the year. Mr. Travis Moger, past director for the program has been a great help to Vlad and himself was recently accepted to the priestly formation program for the Diocese of Wheeling Charleton. God bless one and all.

Again many thanks to the many people who were apart of the Holy Week Services. God bless Michael Galdo and Kevin Bills. The choirs were impeccable at all the Masses. Special accolades for the teenagers who served as cantors. God bless them all. As many a heart and soul were touched by their talents at the services I especially enjoyed hearing their practices all through Lent while I was hearing nightly Confessions. Many thanks to the ushers, sacristans, lectors, and servers who with no small amount of coordination offered an orderly atmosphere for the special services. The folks who set the flowers on the altar were spectacular. Special thanks to our seminarians Andrew Lewandowski who came home for the Easter break from Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. He was the masterful Master of Ceremonies that kept us moving in the many facets of the services. Job well done.

Speaking of Andrew Lewandowski, Bishop Burbidge sent us letter announcing that Andrew will be installed as an acolyte on Saturday April 22nd, at chapel of Mount Saint Mary's. The Mass will start at 10am. All in the parish are invited to go. The altar boys of the parish are invited to attend with their families if they would like to go. Please allow a travel time of just over one hour. Fr. Heisler will meet you at the chapel at Mt. St. Mary's University. I will stay back for Confirmation that day.

Speaking of Maryland, I know many of our parishioners have family members and close friends who live across the river from our parish. I am very sorry for the recent clergy sexual abuse report presented by the State by the State of Maryland. The report, like many others being released across the world was devastating and brings both sadness and anger to the faithful. Let us pray for the Lord's mercy in this time of suffering. I am so very sad for all affected by the scandals. Let us pray for one another.

I am also sorry to inform one and all that the prospects of our sporting basketball teams in the diocesan league poses a problem of our being to small for the larger parishes and the parishes of like size will put us more than an hour from game sites. After a week of driving back and fourth in the rush hours might be overwhelming to many of our dear parents. Please stay tuned for other options.

And now, a cute story for one of our parishioners who recently passed away. Minnie Yahner, age 96, looked forward to her weekly visit from James Norconk, special minister of Holy Communion from the parish. In her final weeks she was slipping away, and he told her he brought the parish choir with him. Eyes brightened and fully alert. He stepped to the door of her room and called the choir members to come in. There was no choir, as he stepped into the other room he sang, "Immaculate Mary." With a loud voice called out that the choir could leave and go home. Then he stepped back into the room and met the nonagenarian who was all smiles. Quite the sendoff. Well done James.

In closing, I would like to thank all who offered the wonderful Easter gifts of Easter bread and hot cross buns. The Blessing of Easter baskets and Easter Egg Hunt offered a wonderful bridge to our sacramental celebrations. God love one and all...

Happy Easter from Fr. Heisler and myself... and Casey.
