Dear Folks,

Many thanks goes out to the many many folks who made the St. Patrick's Day party a great success. Pat Orrender and mighty chefs of the kitchen did a bang up job with the corned beef and cabbage. Jeanie Stanley won the Irish Soda Bread and mentioned her great success was founded on a recipe where the raisins are soaked in some Irish fluids... nectar of the gods... for two days. Well done. The kids dancing to the Irish music were great. And they were cute as bugs. The music was outstanding. On Sunday I commented on the one song everyone recognized and started singing.

*"I've got sunshine on a cloudy day
When it's cold outside, I've got the month of May.
I guess you'd say
What can make me feel this way?"*
[Chorus]

*My girl, my girl, my girl
Talkin' 'bout my girl, my girl"*
(genius.com/The-temptations-my-girl-lyrics)

Tis the week before the week we call, "Holy" and all are called to the "Box" in preparation of the dedication and devotion to our salvation founded on Calvary. For a season calling us to clarity and courage in what we profess and how we live we can be bogged down with multiple confusions. For some, confession has little meaning because God already knows what we are going to say so what's the use. For others, there is a darkness clothed in scrupulosity with no chance of forgiveness. And yet others, who are clothed with a smokescreen of false pride for the many many good things they do and are not sufficiently recognized. Please let go of the confusions go and reach out to the God who created, redeemed, and continues to sanctify you. Take a chance for your salvation.

Act of Contrition: "Oh my God, I am heartily sorry for offending you. And I detest all my sins because of your just punishment but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of your grace to sin no more and to avoid the near occasions of sin. Amen."

Let everyone know the Easter Egg Hunt is on Holy Saturday morning at 10:30am. It should be a great gathering. The blessing of Easter Baskets will follow. Enclosed you will find a marvelous website explaining the Eastern European features of the Easter Basket. Have fun.

The Parish Letter today honors of the many cooks/bakers of the parish. As a point of trivia there are three culinary delights commonly consumed, if not celebrated, in America that have been impacted by the historical life of the Church. None of them are Irish or German... I am sorry. Ha! Ha! Ha! Enclosed are the tasty treats.

First, Hot Cross Buns. The hot cross bun, common to the end of Lent, marks the crucifixion of Christ. And, since the bun is spiced, it reminds us of the myrrh, used in the burial of Christ. Historically, the hot cross bun dates to the 14th century at St. Alban's Monastery in England. It was thought to have medicinal benefits and was ruled by the crown to only be used at Christmas, Good Friday, and Funerals. Why the restriction? The crown had its own superstition that if the mystery of the hot cross bun was abused bad luck would befall the community where the abuse took place. It was also a source of blessing for sailors that helped prevent both illness and ship wreck.

Second, The Croissant. It represented the Christian victory in the defense of the Austrian City, Vienna, in 1683. The Polish leader John Sobieski, under the Holy Roman Emperor, defeated the encroaching Ottomans, who were Islamic. The croissant was designed around the Crescent Moon, as featured on the Islamic flag.

Third. The pretzel. Legend has it that the pretzel was invented by an Italian monk in the year 610 A.D. to reward young children for learning their prayers. He supposedly folded strips of bread dough to resemble the crossed arms of praying children. He called his creation pretiola, which meant "little rewards."

Now, let's be serious, the pretzel in Italy was most likely a cultural and culinary failure in a land that loves it's... wine. It took the Goths, who inundated the Italian peninsula at the time to take the pretzel home for the complimentary... beer. In the Germanic countries the cultural and culinary facets were thus wed both permanently... and happily.

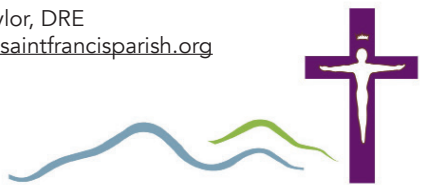

And in closing. Mark Forrest has once again offered to sing for us for the beginning of Holy Week. "You are invited, Come Walk With Me." It will take place Monday, April 3 at 7pm. God bless him as he helps to touch the hearts and souls of all of us. Such a beautiful ending for Lent. Many thanks to Mark. If you are new to the parish and would like to see Mark singing away... you need go no farther than Youtube.com.

Collegiate Answer: The chaplain for the Loyola Basketball team in Chicago is: 103 year old, Sr. Jean. <https://abc-news.go.com/Health/wireStory/103-sister-jean-publishes-memoir-faith-basketball-97252102>

Collegiate Question. The surviving Son of Abraham Lincoln, Robert, is the only surviving son, of three, to survive early childhood and live to the age of 86. His life nearly came to an early end due to a mishap in the Penn Station of New York when he lost his balance and nearly fell between the moving train and platform. Who grabbed his collar and save him? Good luck to our thespians.

Parish Basketball League

Father Gould would like St. Francis de Sales to join up with other local parishes to be part of a diocesan recreational basketball league. We hope to have two basketball teams next fall, boys and girls. We need coaches! If anyone would like to learn more about this fun opportunity, please come to an informational meeting on Monday, April 10 at 7pm in the gym or contact Father Gould at frgould@gmail.com.

If you are homeschooling your children, please call our office if you would like your child to receive the sacrament during our class times on Sunday, Monday, or Wednesday. Sunday classes will have the opportunity to go to confessions during class and before the 10:30AM Mass; Monday and Wednesday classes will go during class. This will be done through the execution of a project, developed by the awarded recipients. Awardees will receive $5000 per school year ($2500 per semester) to help offset the cost of tuition.
