Dear Students,

As the Lord asks us to know, love, and serve Him we are also called to talk to Him. this booklet of prayers offers a way to reach out to Jesus in our daily prayers. Let us join together with Mary, as well as the angels and all the saints. May they help to make us happy, healthy, and holy.

Let us pray for one another,

In Christ,
Rev. James Gould

Why should your children learn these prayers, devotions and lists?

The prayers and lists in this booklet are a small part of the beautiful treasury of traditional prayers and devotions of our Catholic Faith. They help provide us with a glimpse into the foundations of our Faith and a base from which our children can learn how to live happy, healthy, and holy lives. Hopefully, your children will be well prepared and always want to share and teach others about their love for Jesus and His Church.

In religious education classes, we always begin and end with a prayer. The Diocese of Arlington offers guidelines for prayers to be learned throughout a child's primary education. The chart at the end of this booklet provides a breakdown of information by grade level. The organization of these prayers is coordinated as much as possible with other catechesis presented in religious education classes, following the Standards of Learning for the Diocese of Arlington. Students will be asked to show mastery of the prayers at each grade level as they move through the religious education program at St. Francis de Sales.

Of course, parents are asked to pray regularly at home with their children, teaching these prayers and devotions. And the catechists and we will be praying alongside you!

God bless you all,

Diane Taylor

Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Fear of the Lord - We respect God as God, and love God above all things. Sometimes this gift is called "wonder and awe" in God's presence because it reminds us that He is great and all-powerful. Because of such respect, we see the evil of sin, do not want to sin, and do not want to face the punishment due to sin.

Fortitude - We have courage to live and to defend our faith. We are strong against temptation and persecution. We are faithful to Christ even when it is difficult to do so.

Knowledge - We receive and accept the faith. With faith, we see everything in relationship to God and our eternal destiny.

Understanding - Having faith, this gift gives us deeper insight into the Faith so that we better live it and explain it to others.

Counsel - With this gift, we are better able to make good decisions, to know the difference between right and wrong, and to advise others.

Wisdom - This gift enables us "to think with the mind of Christ," to appreciate divine things, to see the work of God in our lives, and to set our hearts on what is truly important- God, virtue, prayer, and everlasting life.

Piety - We are humble before God, realizing that all of our blessings come from Him and that we ought to worship Him.

Come Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your spirit, and they shall be created.

And You shall renew the face of the earth.

Oh God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit

did instruct the hearts of the faithful,

grant that by the same Holy Spirit

We may be truly wise and every enjoy His consolations,

Act of Faith

O my God! I firmly believe that Thou art One God in Three Divine Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; I believe that Thy Divine Son became man, and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because Thou has revealed them, Who can't neither deceive nor be deceived. Amen.

The Memorarae

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
