February 16, 2020

What eye has not seen, and ear has not heard,
and what has not entered the human heart,
what God has prepared for those who love him,
this God has revealed to us through the Spirit.

Steadfast in Faith and Joyful in Hope

This weekend every household in our parish will be asked to complete a Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA) pledge form at Mass. The BLA provides an opportunity to unite as a Catholic family and support programs, ministries and services that no single individual or parish could offer by itself. After reflecting upon the many blessings that God has given you, please prayerfully consider making a pledge of support to this important appeal that furthers the Mission of Jesus Christ in our diocese. Your gift is very important! Every donation, regardless of the amount, is vital to the success of the BLA.

Dear Folks,

Today, as I write this letter, the Church honors the communion of saints celebrating the Feast Day of Paul Miki and his twenty five fellow martyrs in Japan in 1597. Miki, as several others was a Jesuit. Others were Franciscans, one being the first Mexican Martyr in the foreign missions. Some were priests and others lay people... isn't that always the way. They were gathered from across the main Island of Japan and were walked over 600 miles to the Catholic Center of Japan known as, "Nagasaki." Upon arrival they were each crucified on the hill above the city for all to see and be frightened. End of the Story? Not Hardly.

For the better part of two and a half centuries that followed no outside religious influences were allowed in the district of Nagasaki. By the year 1864 Pope Pius IX canonized all twenty six martyrs and a Shrine was set in Nagasaki a year later but on the opposite side of the hill of the crosses. In the year 1865 the Jesuit priest in charge of the shrine was met by fifteen Japanese who claimed to be the descendants of the original Catholic faithful who witnessed the death of Paul Miki and companions. A meager Catholic identity had survived without any contact with the Christian world for two hundred and fifty years. They came asking only one thing... to see a statue of St. Mary. Pope Pius IX would identify them as the "Miracle of the Orient."

The Jesuit director of the Shrine asked them three questions. How they identified themselves: "Confraternity." How they survived with any semblance of Faith, Hope, and Love: A catechist, two hundred years earlier prophesied a day would come when the priests would return. The community responded with patient endurance. And, finally, what did they do in their penances and devotions: They prayed the rosary.

Please note. The faithful in those two and half centuries may not have always endured physical strife but may well have endured a spiritual suffocation known as a White Martyrdom. The stages of their suffocation may well have set them to be broken for a time of direct oppression/persecution. Followed by a time of the wounds for those allowed to live. And a time of scars for those who might have forgotten their Faith. The remnant of the fifteen all became Roman Catholics. Their little shrine, sitting on the opposite side of the hill of crosses would be slightly damaged eighty years later when the resurrected Catholic Community would meet the atomic bomb.

The witness of the recent Impeachment Trials are indicative of an incredible hostility that runs through Capitol Hill and seems a return to a time where a political collectives may not simply mock or threaten single individuals but escalate to an entire confraternity. There is nothing new in that as it happened in England, Russia, China, and Japan. And some cases the hostile political forces were also led by nominal Catholics. It now plays out in Africa and across the Middle East. In all cases members of the confraternity are broken, wounded, and scarred. Among our own... white martyrdom, in suffocation. Ah, in our pastoral experiences we may sadly recall a number of folks who for two or three generations have stepped away from our Catholic parishes assuming they can survive with a minimal sacramental/devotional life and an eighth grade education in the Faith. The challenge for survival in the confraternity, If we want it, pray for it, and defend it with sound reasoning will find us with our own remnant to survive. Miracles do happen.

Now, all that aside, Mrs. Christine Peppiatt was in to see me the other day. She is moving right along in her initiatives with the introduction to a parish presidium for the Legion of Mary. The presidium from St. John's Parish in Leesburg will assist. I will be active in the group. All of you folks who have experience in the Legion of Mary need to jump on board to help stabilize early developments that will impact the parish in her devotional life. Please send me an E-Mail if you would like to join us. frgould@gmail.com.

Mauricio Cifuentes has taken the lead with the restoration of our Hispanic Mass on Saturday nights. Mass will be at 7:00 PM. Fr. Eugenio Hoyos, Diocesan Director for the Hispanic Affairs will come to offer Mass sometime in March. In the meantime there is much to be done to set up various programs for the Hispanic projects. Please contact me if you would like to be a part of the program. We are off to the races. Vivo Christo Rey! Long live Christ the King! frgould@gmail.com

Speaking of contacting me. I recently found twenty eight messages on my office phone directory... that I never check. There is no need to leave messages for me on the parish phone directory. Please just call my cell phone. 703-626-8113.

On the lighter side, I have asked Fr. Heisler to initiate a, "Gourmet Bicycle Club." Yes, all trips will be part of the WO&D bike trail moving in stages, through the weeks, towards Washington. The group is open from the Confirmation Class on up. Please stay tuned and draw up a places to visit. Personally, I recommend the Rose Bakery, across from the Purcellville Train Station. Ask for Jay and tell him I suggested the chocolate eclairs. Hmm. Worth the trip.

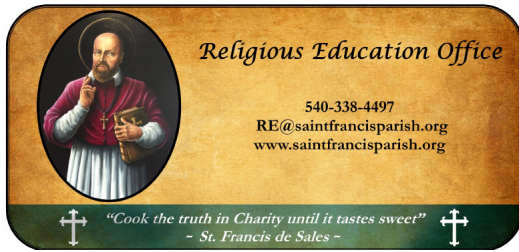

Speaking of the Confirmation Class. Next week, in this letter, we will publish the questions the Bishop has suggested for them to prepare for Confirmation. Stay tuned. Next Fall we will initiate the High School CCD Program. I will take the 9-10th graders and Fr. Heisler will take the 11-12th grades. In the following year we will initiate an AP (Advanced Placement) program for one year. The students will need to test into it. The year will have four sections. Six weeks on Catholic Art. Six weeks on Catholic Music. Six weeks on Catholic Literature. And, Six weeks on Catholic Architecture. There will be two road trips to the Art Galleries the Kennedy Center. That is all the good news... I will save the other news for next week. Please stay tuned. Let us pray for one another.

Collegiate answer. The local church, adjacent to the parish boundaries of St. Francis De Sales, is St. Mary's Church in Petersburg, MD. The church was designed by the wife of the plantation owner, who happened to be a past governor for the state of Maryland. It was built by the slaves. A number of whose descendants still attend Mass at St. Mary's.

You will notice in the picture, the church tower denoting the front of the Church was the slave entrance and the back of the Church was for the White folks. Only the slaves and the Jesuit priests may have noticed the discrepancy. God love the wife.

Collegiate Question. In honor of Fr. Heisler and his bicycle club. Who was the Italian Bicycle Racer, winner of two Tour De France Races, who helped in protecting the lives of Jews during World War II? And who was the Italian Monsignor in the Assisi Underground who would later become Pope? And, what happened to famed bicycle? Good hunting.

Dear Families,

I've enjoyed meeting and chatting with many of you over the past month. Something seems to always be happening “down the hill” in the Education Center...religious education classes, retreats, Bible studies, the men's groups, Knights meetings, Ladies Council activities, Father/Daughter dances...I could go on! All of the moving parts at St. Francis are a joy to watch, and I'm so glad to see that the children are a part of so much of the activity.

I am especially glad to see our Confirmation students volunteering as they prepare to receive the Sacrament on April 25. Those students who helped at the First Reconciliation retreats the past two weekends did a great job leading the smaller children through the stations. Thank you to James, Lily, Kerry, Emma, Bryan, Noah, Adam, Liam, Samantha, Jake, Connor and Rachel! Good work! I look forward to working and getting to know all of the Confirmation candidates better this spring. Parents, please make sure to watch your emails for important announcements and check this bulletin for important Confirmation deadlines (see below).

We are blessed with such a talented and dedicated group of catechists, but we're always in need of more assistants and substitutes in the classes for all sessions: Sunday mornings, and Mondays and Wednesdays in the late afternoon. Parents...if you drop off your children for classes and are able to stay, please let us know. Of if anyone in the parish is looking for a great volunteer opportunity, we would love to have you. We promise that you will not be bored! All volunteers are required to complete child protection forms through the Diocese of Arlington, and this is a great time to do that, also. Please let Janice or me know if you'd like to help, or would like more information.

As we get closer to Lent, we will begin praying a small part of the Rosary each week at the beginning of each class. Parents, you're welcome to join us in Our Lady of Victory Hall.

Let's continue to pray for each other!

God bless you all,
 Kim

This will allow the Catholic Charities food bank to buy much needed milk and eggs for those that benefit from your kindness in Loudoun County. All of the Knights of Columbus Councils in the area were notified that the food bank is having difficulties keeping an adequate supply of milk and eggs for those who are in need. Your council will continue each month (the first weekend) when passing out our donation bags will also be collecting cash, checks (made out to St Francis Council 11136) and "Food Lion" gift cards to provide to the food bank so they can buy milk and eggs. Unfortunately the food bank can only accept "Food Lion" gift cards. Also please continue to provide donated food items the second weekend of the month. The food bank continues to need everyone's support!! Thank you again for your generosity!!
