Dear Folks,

Today, Sunday June 19th, we have an honored guest. Bishop George Nkuo - Diocese of Kumbo, Cameroon, is celebrating the 12:15 Mass of Thanksgiving this Sunday and leading our Corpus Christi Procession to the Crux Gloria, June 19th here at St Francis de Sales in Purcellville.

I include the details of testimony of his personal life and active apostolate to his diocese in Cameroon to demonstrate his duties are very much like our own bishop.

George Nkuo was born on the 28 January 1953 in Njinikom, Boyo Division in the Archdiocese of Bamenda - North West Region of Cameroon. He was ordained priest for the Diocese of Buea on the 26th of April 1981 at Small Soppo, Buea by the Right Reverend Pius Suh Awa, Bishop of Buea. He is of the second batch of priests trained in the present St. Thomas Aquinas' Major Seminary, Bambui.

He was ordained a bishop and installed as the second Bishop of the Diocese of Kumbo on September 8, 2006.

Bishop George is working very hard to build Catholic education, in the Catholic schools in the Diocese as well as in the religious education programs of the parishes. He has introduced the Catholic Education Week and the Bishop's Education Fund which contributes in forming young people to become integral and holistic scholars. He is planning for the future construction of the Medical Department of the newly created Catholic University of Cameroon, Bamenda, and also carrying out improvements in the existing Schools in the Diocese.

The rest of the story, as Paul Harvey would have it, is found in the constant threats imposed on the Catholics in his country with the current civil war of Islamics, the French Speaking population and English Speaking population. In the midst the confusion the rise of Christian fundamentalism is producing a great consternation for Catholics and Protestants. Humanitarian Crisis (2021)

"More than 3,500 people have been killed since the current conflict began in 2016 with killings taking place on daily basis, according to humanitarian organizations.

Over 67,000 people have fled across the border and are now living in Nigeria or remain as refugees there. According to a U.N. report, 4.4 million people are threatened by the war, while 2.2 million are directly affected. Thousands have been internally displaced, living in unbearable conditions in other French-speaking regions.

Emmanuel Lampaert, operations coordinator for Doctors without Borders (MSF) in Central Africa, said that many of those in hospital are suffering from malnutrition.

"We cannot stay any longer in a region where we are not allowed to provide care to people here," Lampaert said in reference to the government suspending MSF activities in the region last December after accusing it of supporting the armed groups.

"The suspension significantly reduces access to medical services in an area where communities are badly affected by armed violence," he said. "Those who have fled the violence often take refuge in the bush, far from any health facilities, vulnerable to malaria, infections or snakebites, in locations often inaccessible for emergency vehicles such as ambulances, or even motorcycles." www.ncregister.com/news/cameroon-s-conflict-a-report-from-the-ground

"When two elephants are fighting, the grass suffers" goes the old African saying and it is particularly apropos to this five-year old conflict that has brought great suffering to the local population, caught as it is between the military and secessionist fighters. It also shows no sign of ending, as the government continues to be reluctant to build a general consensus and truthful, inclusive national dialogue with all the protagonists to find a lasting solution."

This past Sunday, at two parish Masses, we bid farewell to a number of our high school graduates that have been active in the Liturgical Ministry, soon to leave us. God bless the young ones and many of their schoolmates who are faithful to attending Mass and Confession. They give hope to the rest of us. Congratulations to: Patrick O'Neill, altar server; Elliott Boyko, altar server; Kalen Wojtkyn, altar server; Caitlin Orender, JAS, lector, usher, catechist aide; Chloe Costello, music ministry; Emelie Pffingsten, music ministry; Thomas McKenna, lector.

WORKCAMP 2022 – July 3 – July 9 in Scranton, PA. All current 8th – 12th graders are invited!

URGENT: ADULTS NEEDED!!! – Interested in coming to Workcamp with us as an adult volunteer? Currently, we do not have enough adults. We still need 3-4 more. Workcamp is only possible because of the adults (ages 21+) who generously spend the week working and worshiping alongside the teens. Please contact Emily at e.glass@saintfrancisparish.org for more info. We are at the point where we need to remove teens from our registration list because we do not have enough adults.

VEHICLES NEEDED – We are looking to borrow vans or SUVs with 6 or more seatbelts for Workcamp. Having one vehicle with 6 or more seats is a requirement for all adults at Workcamp. If you have a vehicle that you'd be willing to lend us for the week, please contact me at e.glass@saintfrancisparish.org. We can arrange a car swap if needed, so that you still have a vehicle to use during the week.

PARENT & TEEN WORKCAMP MEETING – The last Workcamp meeting is for teens AND parents on Sunday, June 26 in the Knights Hall. Please make sure you're there to get all the final packing and departure details and reminders.

FUNDRAISING – Remember to turn in any donations you receive to Emily at the Workcamp meetings, mail them to the church, or drop them off in the parish offices. Friendly reminder that every participant is responsible for $600/person ($450 after the deposit.) If you are choosing not to fundraise, please let me know ASAP, and turn your $450 check by the end of June.

TEEN MASS & YOUTH NIGHT – Every Sunday at 5:30 PM, join us in the front four left rows to celebrate Mass together. Then come up to Youth Night! 6:30-8 PM in Room 213 for fellowship, discussion, prayer, and fun. Bring a friend! All high schoolers are welcome! Come to grow in friendship with Christ and one another.

The Good, The Messy and the Beautiful with Edward and Beth Sri

Saturday, July 23, 2022

God draws spouses ever closer to the Heavenly marriage through the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony, but this does not mean that the journey is easy. On the contrary, marriage can present spouses with many different kinds of struggles and difficulties, alongside the joys and triumphs of family life.

Join us for this one-day event with Edward and Beth Sri, who will share from their 20+ years of marriage the lessons they have learned about the realities of marriage. From discussions about miscommunication, healing, intimacy, gifts, and more, you will walk away refreshed and strengthened in your vows.
